Student Assistant for Technology

Employer: Buffalo State College - Career Development Center

Job/Internship Target: Computer Information Systems, Education - Educational Computing

Type of Job: Part-time Jobs
Position Title: Student Assistant for Technology (ORCA Job ID: 3003)

Position Description:
An opening exists for the position of Student Assistant for Technology.

The assistant will update the Career Development Center website as directed and provide both assistance with our computer lab and general technical support for our office. The position is 15 hours per week.

Interested students should apply ASAP!! For consideration, please send a resume to the contact listed below. The announcement is open until the position is filled.

Applicants will be asked to demonstrate their static HTML programming skills during the interview process.

Position Requirements:
The successful candidate will have strong static HTML writing skills and some familiarity with PHP and ASP scripted content. Experience writing static HTML is required.

Applicants should be persistent, skilled in troubleshooting/problem solving, and have willingness to learn new computer languages. The ideal candidate will take initiative and be self-directed under appropriate conditions.

Other knowledge and experience helpful: database management (Access and MySQL), JavaScript, Internet Information Services, ODBC, SQL, AJAX, Flash, Photoshop and others. Applicant must be a current undergraduate or graduate Buffalo State College student. Freshmen are encouraged to apply.

Deadline:
September 30, 2015

Important Dates
Posted On:
April 22, 2015

Applications Accepted Until:
September 30, 2015

Contact Information
Employer: Buffalo State - Career Development Center
Website: http://cdc.buffalostate.edu
Name: Phillip Auman
Title: Senior Career Counselor
E-mail: aumanpj@buffalostate.edu
Phone: 716-878-5811
Address: 1300 Elmwood Avenue, CLEV 306
Buffalo, New York 14222